

Welcome to student guidance at NTNU!

We are here to help you and when you come to our office, you can expect that:

- We will provide help and understanding. We will do our best to answer your questions and offer advice and guidance.
- If we cannot help you, we will try our best to find someone who can.
- You will get correct information based on current regulations and curriculum plans.
- Our student advisers are bound by confidentiality agreements when they discuss matters with you.

To get the most out of an appointment with one of our advisers, consider the following:

- Plan what you want to get from the appointment.
- Look into relevant information in advance; find information about studies on NTNU's web-pages and StudentService's web-pages.

About studies and courses: www.ntnu.edu/studies

StudentService's web pages: www.ntnu.no/studentService (in Norwegian)

By talking to you about your possibilities, interests and skills we will try to help you make independent decisions and choices that are right for you. It is your life and you have numerous opportunities.

If you cannot come to an appointment that has been arranged, it is important that you let us know as soon as possible.

NTNU

Norwegian University of Science and Technology

Studieveiledning ved NTNU

Vi ber deg lese gjennom denne folderen på forhånd. Dette bidrar til at du får økt utbytte av veiledningen.

Velkommen!

www.ntnu.no/studieveiledning

Foto: NTNU Info, Cathrine Oliver Hage Trykk: NTNU-trykk