The following documents must be submitted for your application to be processed:

A → NTNU affiliates

- Employees, PhD Candidates and Postdoctoral Fellows must include:
 - a statement from their Department/Faculty guaranteeing that they will pay for the course.
 - their work contract at NTNU
- Exchange students and Master students must include a NTNU student ID card, or a copy of their letter of admission.
- Spouses of Scientific staff with a permanent position at NTNU  must include:
 - the spouse's contract of employment at NTNU
 - a statement from their spouse's Department/Faculty guaranteeing that they will pay for the course
 - certified copies of both high school and university/college education in the original language and authorised translations if the original documents are not in English or a Scandinavian language. The copies must be stamped, dated and signed by an employee at an educational institution, police, lawyer, certified copying agency or another public authority (state/county).
 - marriage certificate

B → applicants without NTNU affiliation

- Other applicants (not affiliated with NTNU - i.e. not belonging to any of the categories mentioned above) must include*:
- a certified copy of a valid residence permit and a copy of your passport, or a certified copy of marriage certificate stating marriage to a Norwegian citizen.
 - certified copies of both high school and university/college education in the original language and authorised translations if the original documents are not in English or a Scandinavian language. The copies must be stamped, dated and signed by an employee at an educational institution, police, lawyer, certified copying agency or another public authority (state/county).
- Please note that applicants with a higher university degree (e.g. master's degree) also must document their lower university degree (e.g. bachelor's degree) if they want credits for both degrees to be counted. Applicants with the most credits accepted at university level are ranked highest.
