Answer the following question:

Public participation in planning processes is given increasing attention by planning authorities. Give a presentation of central motivations for public participation in decision-making processes. Discuss thereafter different types of participation and tools for participation, and in what ways public participation can be seen as a question of democracy. Choose two examples of public participation in decision-making processes related to landscape, in order to illustrate this.

Svar på følgende spørsmål:

Allmenn deltakelse i planprosesser gis stadig større oppmerksomhet i offentlig planlegging. Gi en presentasjon av sentrale motiver for deltakelse i beslutningsprosesser. Diskuter deretter ulike former for og verktøy i deltakelse, og på hvilke måter deltakelse kan betraktes som et spørsmål om demokrati. Velg to eksempler på deltakelse i beslutningsprosesser knyttet til landskap for å illustrere dette.
