

Marine Ventures International Symposium 2013

Symposium Wednesday, October 2

10:00 – 11:30 Registration at Dokkhuset, Solsiden, Dokkparken 4

11:30 – 12:00 Hein B. Bjerck and Silje E. Fretheim:
Welcome to the Marine Ventures Symposium

12:00 – 12:30 Peter Woodman:
Fast Ferry to Kirkenes or slow boat to Dublin?

12:30 – 13:00 Mattias Petterson, Roger Wikell:
To the end of the world – Recent results about seal hunters in the Ancylus Lake, 10 000 years ago

13:00 – 13:30 Daryl Fedje, Duncan McLaren:
Hakai, a Late-glacial to early Holocene Paleoshoreline “Sweet Spot” on the West Coast of Canada

Session Chair: Silje E. Fretheim

13:30 – 14:30 Lunch

14:30 – 15:00 Jan Magne Gjerde:
Marine Ventures in Stone Age rock art of Fennoscandia

15:00 – 15:30 Evguenia V. Anichtchenko:
Arctic sail

15:30 – 16:00 Jason Rogers:
Icescapes: (Ant)Arctic Maritime Archaeology

16:00 – 16:30 David R. Yesner
Synthesizing the coastal zooarchaeological records from the Early Holocene Russian Far East and Japan

Session Chair: Birgitte Skar

18:30 – 19:30 Wine reception and visit to the exhibition “Marine Ventures: Stone Age foragers in the seascapes of Norway and Tierra del Fuego” at NTNU University Museum (Vitenskapsmuseet), Erling Skakkes gate 47A, entrance from Gunnerus gate.
After the exhibition: Joint venture for food and drinks in town

Thursday, October 3

09:00 – 09:30 Omar Reyes Báez, César Méndez Melgar, Manuel San Román Bontes, Flavia Morello Repetto:
Search for maritime hunter-gatherer evidence in the shifting coastal lines of the western Patagonian channels (43°-47°, Chonos Archipelago, Chile)

09:30 – 10:00 Manuel San Román Bontes, Omar Reyes Báez, Flavio Morello Repetto:
Maritime hunter-gatherers from Southernmost Patagonia, South America: timing, changes and cultural traditions during the Holocene

10:00 – 10:30 Alfredo Maximiano Castillejo:
Determination potential passages for Modelling Kawesqar mobility in Fuego-Patagonia: the prehistoric Canoeists’ Passage Project

10:30 – 11:00 Coffee break

11:00 – 11:30 Lisa Rankin, Amanda Crompton:
Kayaks and Chaloupes: Labrador Inuit and the seascapes of inter-cultural contact

11:30 – 12:00 Amanda Crompton, Lisa Rankin:
Chaloupes and Kayaks: European mariners and the seascapes of inter-cultural contact

Session Chair: Ernesto L. Piana

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch

13:00 – 13:30 Hein B. Bjerck:
The Marine Ventures project. Comparative perspectives on the dynamics of early human approaches to the seascapes of Tierra del Fuego and Norway

13:30 – 14:00 Heidi Mjelva Breivik, Hein B. Bjerck, Atilio Francisco J. Zangrando, Ernesto L. Piana:
Exploring complimentary sources to marine hunter-gatherer lifestyles within the Marine Ventures project

14:00 – 14:30 Elisabeth F. Swensen, Maghild M. Husøy:
Marine Ventures and Thomas Bridges' Yamana-English Dictionary

14:30 – 15:00 Coffee break

15:00 – 15:30 Silje E. Fretheim, Ernesto L. Piana, Hein B. Bjerck, Atilio Francisco J. Zangrando:
Dwellings and societal changes among marine foragers in Norway and Patagonia – a study of technological choices in housebuilding traditions

15:30 – 16:00 Atilio Francisco J. Zangrando, Angélica M. Tivoli:
Channels, islands and faunal variability. A zooarchaeological perspective of the human use of seascapes in the archipelago of Tierra del Fuego

16:00 – 16:30 Hein B. Bjerck, Heidi Mjelva Breivik, Ernesto L. Piana, Atilio Francisco J. Zangrando:
Exploring pinnipeds as a prime motivator in the colonizing of the skerry-fjord seascapes of Patagonia and Scandinavia

Session Chair: Charlotte Damm

Friday, October 4

09:00 – 09:30 Carola Flores, Diego Salazar, Valentina Figueroa, César Boire, Laura Olguín, Philippe Béarez, Felipe Fuentes, Sandra Rebolledo, Hernán Salinas, Mónica Bahamondes:
The development of early specialized maritime economies in the coast of the Atacama Desert, Chile: interpreting a six-thousand year process (11 000-5000 cal BP)

09:30 – 10:00 Joaquina Soares:
Rethinking the Mesolithic of the Sado Paleo-Estuary (Portugal) semi-sedentary hunter-gatherers

10:00 – 10:30 Antonieta Jerardino, Nicholas Wiltshire, Timm Hoffman:
Cultural boundaries, environmental variables and biogeographic ranges: characterizing settlement at Soutpansklipheuwel, a rocky outcrop on the West Coast of South Africa

Session Chair: Angélica M. Tivoli

10:30 – 11:00 Coffee break

11:00 – 11:30 Per Persson, Steinar Solheim:
Marine adaptation in Norwegian Mesolithic – A venture or a safe and secured fjord-living?

11:30 – 12:00 Knut Andreas Bergsvik, Anne Karin Hufthammer, Kenneth Richie:
The emergence of sedentism in Mesolithic western Norway: A case-study from the rockshelters of Sævarhelleren and Olsteinhelleren by the Hardanger fjord

12:00 – 12:30 Helge Sørheim:

Fishing as a new commercial profession and the dawn for new habitation along the Norwegian coast

Session Chair: Francisco J. Zangrando

12:30 – 13:30 Lunch

13:30 – 14:00 Aikaterini Glykou:
Seal exploitation in Baltic Sea during the mid- and late Holocene

14:00 – 14:30 Uwe Sperling:
Bronze Age connections across the Baltic Sea. Discussing metalwork as source of maritime contacts in prehistory

14:30 – 15:00 Svein Vatsvåg Nielsen, Joachim Åkerstrøm, Jo-Simon Stokke:
Quartz utilization along the coast of southern Norway: Results from a Stone Age survey in East Agder

15:00 – 15.30 Coffee break

15:30 – 16:00 Birgitte Skar:
She's dead but she won't lie down – the potential of submerged deposits for a wider perspective on Norwegian Mesolithic adaptation

16:00 – 16:30 Hans Harmsen, Priyantha Karunaratne:
Coastal hazards, resiliency and the co-evolution of human-natural systems along the southeast coast of Sri Lanka during the middle to late Holocene (ca 5000-1000 cal BC): Preliminary findings of the 2013 Bundala Archaeological Survey

16:30 – 17.00 Esteban Álvarez-Fernández
Marine Resources in the caves with Upper Pleistocene and Holocene levels in La Garma Archaeological Zone (Cantabria, Spain)

Session Chair: Hein B. Bjerck

.....

19:00 Symposium Dinner at Havfruen Fish Restaurant, Kjøpmannsgata 7

Excursion Saturday, October 5

10:00 Departure by ship from the Hurtigruten Port, Pir I
16:30 Arrival in Kristiansund, departure by bus to Thon Hotel Kristiansund, Innlandet
17:30 Harbour cruise with Sundbåten, the Kristiansund Harbour Ferry, departure from Innlandet
19:00 Dinner at Smia Fish Restaurant, Kirklandet

Sunday, October 6

10:00 Departure for bus excursion, from the hotel
13:00 Lunch in the fishing village of Bud
17:00 Arrival back in Kristiansund

Leaving Kristiansund on Sunday evening:

Plane

- Kristiansund - Oslo (SK2308) 18:55-19:50
- Kristiansund - Oslo - Trondheim (SK2308 + SK380) 18:55-21:40
- Kristiansund - Stavanger (TI7522) 19:20-20:20
- Kristiansund - Bergen (WF577) 20:45-21:45

Ship

- Kristiansund - Trondheim 02:00-08.30 (Actually on Monday 7th. The ship arrives in Kristiansund from Molde at 01:30 am)
- Molde - Trondheim 22:15-08.30 (Bus Kristiansund - Molde: 19:05-20.35 or 20.05-21.35 - TIMEkspressen, Line 11)