

Norwegian University of
Science and Technology

Welcome to Trondheim, NTNU and Hydropower Summit

Knowledge for a better world

Trondheim | Gjøvik | Ålesund

NTNU Brussels Office

Key figures

- 8 faculties and 55 departments
- 7400 person-years
- 42 000 students
- 7220 completed bachelor's and master's degrees in 2018
- 394 doctoral degrees in 2019

NTNU will actively contribute to achieve the UN Sustainability Development Goals

Research

- Participating in 154 Horizon 2020 projects and has 11 ERC grants
- Granted NOK 800 million from the Horizon 2020 programme so far. Goal: NOK 1 billion
- Is the institution that is awarded the most funding from the Research Council of Norway
- Host or partner for 35 major research centres (SFF, SFI, and FME)
- 394 doctoral degrees completed in 2019
- Internal initiatives to develop and recruit top researchers
- Strategic research areas and enabling technologies in 2014–2023:

ENERGY

HEALTH

OCEANS

SUSTAINABILITY

NTNU
BIOTECHNOLOGY

NTNU
DIGITAL

NTNU
NANO

OPEN
SCIENCE
NTNU

- Collaboration
- Dissemination
- Transparency
- Reproducibility

NTNU

Norwegian University of
Science and Technology

Good luck with the Hydropower Summit