Students will find the examination results in Studentweb. Please contact the department if you have questions about your results. The Examinations Office will not be able to answer this.
NB! The exam consists of two sections (A and B). An answer must be provided to both sections. Failing to answer both sections will result in automatic failure of the exam.

Section A counts for 30 % of the final grade, and Section B counts for 70 % of the final grade, but overall impression will also be taken into account.

Section A: Short answers

Answer three (3) of the questions below. Expected answer length is approximately 150 words, or half a page, per question.

2. To what extent can opposition to 'Obamacare' be ascribed to an enduring emphasis on self-reliance?
3. Why has same-sex marriage been such a divisive issue in the US?
4. Why is policy debate on abortion so controversial?
5. Is the 2017 travel ban a nativist policy?

Section B: Essay

Write an essay in response to one (1) of the questions below. Expected essay length is approximately 1000-1500 words, or 3-4 pages.

1. Discuss whether unilateral powers represent an erosion of American democratic principles.
2. Critically examine the label of America as a ‘post-racial’ society.
3. Discuss whether American society is religious or secular.